

Black Pepper improves digestion, treats constipation, flatulence, and helps the digestive track run smoothly, also stimulating for the spleen to treat anemia. Its warming nature treats rheumatoid arthritis, muscle spasms, and other aches and pains. It stimulates circulation, helps increase energy, treats infections and fevers, stimulates the appetite, fights addictions and has slight aphrodisiac properties.