

Supports the entire digestive function of the body; treats digestive problems; gas, vomiting, intestinal spasms, intestinal parasites, and constipation; prevents and/or treats urinary stones, urinary infections, and cystitis; assist the liver in producing enzymes, supports functions of inner organs- liver, kidney, and spleen; is a diuretic, assists the urinary system function properly; its estrogen-like properties balance hormones, reduce PMS, and menopausal symptoms; good for diabetics; lowers blood glucose levels, and treats gout; treats anorexia by stimulating the appetite.

Caution: Do not use with epilepsy. Because of those estrogen properties, it should not be used while pregnant. However, it is good to use during breastfeeding because it helps increase lactation, use no more than 2 drops a day.